Dear Parents and Carers,

World Book Day – Thursday 6th March 2025

As part of our World Book Day celebrations, which has a theme of 'Read Your Way', that are taking place this half term, we are inviting every child to come to school on Thursday 6th March either dressed as a character from a book they have enjoyed reading or in something they feel comfortable to read in such as pyjamas, comfy clothes etc.

We would encourage you to talk with your children about characters they may wish to come dressed up as, perhaps from a book they have enjoyed reading at home or as part of our English lessons at school. Please don't feel the need to spend lots of money on a new 'character costume', instead, why not try using what you already have at home to create an extra special costume. To confirm, there is no specific theme, and children can dress as any character as long as this character is from a book. We would encourage them to bring a copy of the book that their character is from to share with their class.

During the day, our whole school will be able to enjoy a variety of learning activities themed around books and authors and will also have the opportunity to share books with children from other year groups. Furthermore, every child will receive a £1.00 World Book Day voucher, which they can use towards the purchase of a book of their choice in a selection of booksellers. Book Day promises to be great fun with lots of sharing of books and celebrating our love of reading together. We look forward to seeing some interesting and exciting costumes.

To coincide with WBD, Caterlink have provided a themed menu on this day. If you have already pre-ordered your child's meal for this day this will be cancelled. Please go into your child's ScoPay account and reselect from the themed menu. Children with special dietary requirements will receive a copy of their menu to choose from.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

K Burt
